

Road to Election Night & Beyond

Ten days after Election Day, an international press club will come together in Berlin to discuss the aftermath of the 2020 U.S. Presidential Election. Tune in as five leading journalists representing the United States, Germany, Italy, Poland and France comment on possible repercussions on the Euro-American partnership and voice their expectations towards a Biden-Harris administration.

Beyond Election Day: Transatlantic Media De-Brief
Friday, November 13, 2020
3:00 - 4:30 p.m. (CET)

The discussion will be streamed live and feature the following speakers:

Melissa Eddy

Berlin Correspondent for The New York Times

Tina Hassel

Head and TV Editor-in-Chief of ARD-Hauptstadtstudio in Berlin

Tonia Mastrobuoni

Berlin Correspondent for La Repubblica

Wojciech Szymański

Berlin Correspondent for the Polish Section of Deutsche Welle

Thomas Wieder (invited)

Berlin Correspondent for Le Monde

The discussion will be moderated by

Terry Martin

Senior Anchor for Deutsche Welle News

This special format is hosted in cooperation with the Senate Chancellery of Berlin. We are delighted that the Governing Mayor of Berlin, Michael Müller, will give opening remarks.

The Governing Mayor of Berlin

BERLIN

The event is part of the transatlantic virtual event series Road to Election Night & Beyond #R2EN, which is organized and hosted by several transatlantic institutions and political foundations. More information on the virtual series can be found at www.landing.berlin-election-night.de.

Our Supporter:

