Holly Cummings

Federal Voting Assistance Program Ambassador for Germany

The November elections in the U.S. are fast approaching! Whether you're an American studying abroad, working overseas or a long-term expat, you can vote this fall. All members of the House of Representatives, one third of the Senate as well as 36 state governors are up for election. Join Holly Cummings, the U.S. Federal Voting Assistance Program Ambassador for Germany, for a discussion about absentee voting. Holly will provide information and answer questions about how you can request your absentee ballot using the FVAP.gov website, return your ballot, and what to do if your ballot does not arrive on time. Bring all of your voting questions!

Holly Cummings is the Federal Voting Assistance Program Ambassador for Germany. FVAP is a US Federal government program that provides accurate and non-partisan absentee voting information to overseas citizens.

An event hosted by the German-American Institute Tübingen
